

Corrugated cardboard and carton packaging

YES

- Corrugated cardboard boxes
- Cartons
- Corrugated cardboard rolls
- Cardboard cylinders
- Toilet and household cardboard rolls

NO

- Packaging that has come in direct contact with cytostatics or antibiotics
- Packaging containing food residue

Tips and advice

Take away any plastic bags, pockets or other foreign material that are easily removed. Fold and flatten the items. Put several smaller packages inside a larger one.